Please join us for conversation and reflection on the importance of health equity in the behavioral health recovery process and the necessity of access to affordable, culturally competent healthcare options for all. The Forum features a keynote by Dr. David Satcher and panel discussion by individuals sharing their lived and professional experiences of navigating behavioral health inequities and exploring how to make behavioral health care more inclusive for all.

The event is free, but registration is required.

Register Today!

The following CEUs have been applied for: nursing, social workers, LMHC, LMFT, CADAC, and LADC.