WALDEN SCHOOL

POSITION: RESIDENTIAL CLINICIAN
$1000.00 Sign-on Bonus

Walden School, located in Framingham MA, is a therapeutic residential school that provides comprehensive treatment for deaf adolescents with complex trauma or have difficulty managing their emotions safely. Our mission is to provide continuity of care across a variety of milieus while supporting students with developing skills to have success in the greater community.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Our team of dynamic and passionate clinicians provide a variety of clinical services to those on their caseload, including but not limited to: individual, group, and family therapy, crisis intervention, case management, and assessment. Additionally, clinicians are responsible for maintaining positive relationships with outside agencies, families, collaterals, and consulting psychiatrists. The clinician serves as an integral member of a student's treatment team and works interdepartmentally to determine individualized recommendations for each student and implement those within the milieu. The ideal candidate will have strong communication and advocacy skills, flexibility, and ability to work as part of a team; additionally, there is a strong emphasis placed on non-traditional, more holistic approaches to therapy, and so the ideal candidate will bring creativity and passion to their clinical work. Walden School firmly believes in the power of trauma-informed care and is seeking a motivated clinician with similar beliefs to join our team!

REQUIREMENTS:

- Master’s Degree and MA license-eligible in either Social Work, Mental Health Counseling, or Marriage and Family Therapy required
- Experience working with adolescents and their families in the mental health field
- Experience working in a residential setting preferred
- A minimum of conversational fluency in American Sign Language required, with native, or near-native ASL fluency preferred
- Able to work collaboratively across a multi-disciplinary team
- Knowledge of, experience with, and belief in Trauma informed treatment a must
Some lifting may be required when working with young students or students with special needs, however, TLC embraces and celebrates a spirit of inclusion and diversity, and reasonable accommodations and modifications will be made whenever possible. The diversity of our student population may require that some assignments have a heavier physical responsibility due to safety. If the opening for which you are applying will require more strenuous physical activity, the unique needs will be discussed at the time of interview.

*Perform other tasks as assigned by the Department Supervisor.

The Learning Center for the Deaf offers substantial benefits including medical, dental, vision, 403b contribution, life insurance, short-term and long-term disability insurance, paid parental leave, tuition reimbursement, professional development, and generous paid time off.

If you are interested in any of the positions listed above please submit a cover letter, resume, and an employment application to HR@tlcdeaf.org.

*Please note this job description is not designed to cover or contain a comprehensive listing of activities, duties, or responsibilities that are required of the employee for this job. Duties, responsibilities, and activities may change at any time with or without notice.

TLC is proud to be an equal opportunity employer and all employees and applicants for employment are afforded equal opportunity in every area of hiring and employment without regard to race, color, religious creed, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, age, criminal record (inquiries only), handicap (disability), mental illness, retaliation, sexual harassment, sexual orientation, genetics, active military and any other legally protected characteristic.
